~~Adventure Novels~~

Mary started by writing books that even the most reluctant readers couldn't put down. Readers of all ages appreciate her way of engaging them from the first page and delving into thought-provoking, compelling stories!

MOOSE TRACKS • For readers 8-12+ • paperback $10

When 12-year old Seth Jacobsen comes face-to-face with poachers, he must choose between saving a moose calf and putting his family in harm's way. "A fast-paced adventure!"

WOLF SHADOWS • For readers 8-12+ • paperback $10

When Matt takes out his frustration by shooting a wolf, Seth has an important decision to make. Is friendship more important than upholding the law? A can't put down story!

STEALING THUNDER • For readers 8-12+ • paperback $10

Libby fears the horse she loves is being mistreated, but the only one who takes her seriously is a boy named Griff. What risks would you take to save an animal you loved?

THE KLIPFISH CODE • For readers 10 and up • paperback $8

It's WWII and no place is safe in Nazi-occupied Norway, not even the island where Marit and her brother, Lars, have been sent to stay with their peace-loving grandfather. Marit must choose between helping the Resistance or risking the lives of her family.

RIOT • For readers 11 and up • paperback $10

Bryan Grant, 12, must make difficult choices when his hockey-coach dad and northern Minnesota town spin out of control. Based on true events, this is the story of a labor dispute turned violent.

WHEN EAGLES FALL • For readers 11 and up • paperback $10

When Alex lost her younger brother to cancer, everything fell apart. Sent to spend time with her father, an eagle researcher, a storm sweeps her—and an injured eaglet—into the wilderness.

CURSE OF A WINTER MOON • For readers 11 and up • paperback $10

Villagers are certain Marius's younger brother is a werewolf, or loup garou. It's a dark and dangerous time in history, and Marius struggles to keep himself—and Jean Pierre—alive.

~~Young Adult~~

FROZEN • For readers 13 to adult • paper $12

Set in 1920 in northern Minnesota, this historically inspired novel is about 16-year old Sadie Rose, who hasn't spoken a word since she was found eleven years, nearly frozen in the snow. When she stumbles upon hidden photographs of her mother, Sadie Rose begins to piece together her mother's murder--and struggles to find her voice, no matter the cost.

ICE-OUT • For readers 13 to adult • Circle one: hardcover $17 • paperback $12

At 19 years old, Owen Jensen is determined to make something of himself--but it's 1922 on the northern border, Prohibition is in full swing, and neither law enforcement nor bootleggers hold the moral high ground. Inspired by real events, this fast-paced coming-of-age novel confronts the price of blind ambition, the destructive nature of secrecy, and the redemptive power of love.
